ISLAND HOPPING

The great thing about Hawaii's very different islands is that it is incredibly easy to go "island hopping" and visit multiple islands in one vacation. Spend a few days on the Big Island, then hop a flight to neighboring Maui, for example. Island hopping lets you have the best of all worlds and keeps your adventures fresh.

While the majority of all travelers to Hawaii visit Oahu – appropriately known as "The Gathering Place" – many continue on to experience Maui, Kauai, and the Big Island. Each island is distinct and offers a unique slice of Hawaiian life that's worth a visit. And hopping between them is easier than ever.

Taking advantage of "free night" offers at selected hotels, sightseeing add-ons, and an Alamo rental car; your travel consultant can help arrange those details that will assure the best, most fulfilling Hawaii vacation experience for you. The following suggested itineraries offer options for every type of traveler.

FOR THE FIRST TIMER

Oahu (3 nights) – Maui (4 nights) – Kauai (3 nights)

- In Oahu, pay your respects at the USS Arizona Memorial, one of America's greatest tributes to those who died in service of their country, filled with engaging history and heartfelt emotion.
- No visit to Hawaii is complete without a genuine luau experience, and Maui's best is the Old Lahaina Luau, featuring a sumptuous buffet dinner, traditional arts and crafts demonstrations, a dramatic imu presentation, and Hawaiian revue.
- Kauai is for sailing, great food, and sunsets, and the NaPali Sunset Sail delivers all this and more in an awesome evening of cruising just off the colorful Na Pali Coast.

SEASONED TRAVELER

Maui (4 nights) – Lanai (3 nights)

- Board a chopper to view Maui's famous Haleakala National Park and Haleakala Crater, plus the Hana Rainforest Preserve, the largest rainforest in the US.
- On Lanai, it's all about the beaches: Polihua Beach, though remote, is an awesome stretch of golden sands; Shipwreck Beach is a magnet for strolling and beachcombing; and Hulopoe (named "#1 Beach in America by Dr. Beach") is best known for snorkeling, surfing, and dolphin-watching.

RING OF ROMANCE

Kauai (3 nights) – Maui (4 nights) – Oahu (3 nights)

- Experience Kauai the way it was meant to be seen on a deluxe helicopter tour that soars over Hanapepe Valley, Waimea Canyon, the Na Pali Coast, and Mt. Waialeale.
- While you feast on an exquisite dinner buffet, the Teralani 2 catamaran takes you to see some of Maui's most breathtaking and beautiful sights.
- Connect with local pro photographers on Oahu for a day of shooting unique sights like Magic Island Lagoon, Waikiki Beach, Sans Souci State Recreational Park, and the War Memorial Natatorium.

Hulopoe Beach, Lanai

FAMILY FLAVOR

Oahu (3 nights) – Maui (4 nights)

- Visit Oahu's amazing Polynesian Cultural Center and see authentic villages, live arts and crafts demonstrations, the pageant of the long canoes, and an extravaganza of song and dance.
- Enjoy a genuine Hawaiian experience at Maui's Old Lahaina Luau, featuring a sumptuous buffet dinner, traditional arts and crafts demonstrations, dramatic Imu presentation, and Hawaiian revue.

THE ADVENTURE SEEKER

Big Island (4 nights) – Kauai (4 nights) – Maui (3 nights) – Oahu (3 nights)

- Marvel at five active or dormant volcanoes, including Kilauea, on the 260-mile Grand Circle Island Excursion. Also, visit a black-sand beach, Kona coffee plantation, Volcano National Park, and, time permitting, Rainbow Falls.
- On Kauai, witness breathtaking mountain and ocean views as you hike Kalihiwai Valley and the lowland rainforest to the spectacular five-tiered Kalihiwai Falls.
- Board a chopper to view Maui's famous Haleakala National Park and Haleakala Crater, plus the Hana Rainforest Preserve.
- Hop into a custom Jeep to explore Oahu's diverse landscapes, including Diamond Head, Pali Lookout, the famous North Shore surfing beaches, and the Dole Pineapple and Coffee Plantation.

What may be most compelling about Oahu is that this small island magnificently highlights all the best of Hawaii. The culture, the mysticism, the welcoming locals, the lush tropical foliage, the fragrant flowers, the undeniably gorgeous beaches, the majestic mountains, the energy of Honolulu – it’s all right here, just waiting for you to explore.

Oahu is home to approximately 75% of all Hawaiians, which is why it is also referred to as “The Gathering Place.” Here you’ll find more restaurants, shops, and nightlife than all the other Hawaiian islands combined. Oahu is as well known for its perfect surfing conditions as it is for its beautiful beaches. You can get a taste of both on Waikiki as well as the North Shore, surfing capital of the USA.

MAUI

MAUI EXPERIENCES:

Best Snorkeling

Maui's best snorkeling spots include Kapalua Bay, Black Rock, and Molokini Crater.

Luau Land

Groove to traditional music, cuisine, and cultural dances at Old Lahaina Luau.

Chopper Over Maui

One hour in a helicopter cruising over Maui is worth three days' driving time.

Walk the Island

The best way to explore Maui's waterfalls, volcanoes, and rainforests is on foot.

Bike Ride Down Haleakala

From the rim of the Haleakala volcano, hop onto a bike for a thrilling 10,000-foot ride down the mountainside.

Humpback Whales

Watch for the humpback whales that stop here every year, especially from McGregor Point, Olowalu Reef, Wailea Beach, and Puu Olai.

Surfing Maui

With its gentle breaks, Maui is built for surfing.

On gorgeous Maui, water sports, luaus on the sands, and brilliant tropical scenery create a serenely appealing way of life – and a primo vacation spot for sun worshippers and outdoor enthusiasts, thanks to an average 320 days of sunshine per year.

At Lahaina, watch humpback whales during their winter migration. Hike 10,000 feet to the summit of Haleakala, the world's largest dormant volcano, and be rewarded with astonishing views of Maui and beyond – especially at sunrise. Hit golden Ka'anapali Beach for body-boarding, kayaking, and sailing. Rent a car for the drive from Kahului to Hana along the rugged eastern coastline; this 52-mile stretch of road – the most scenic in all of Hawaii – takes you across 54 one-lane bridges and through 617 curves, with a glorious backdrop of rainforests, waterfalls, and seascapes.

Haleakala sunrise

Drums Of The Pacific Luau

3 Hours / Diamond Head Vacations

Exotic flowers surround you on a journey through all of Polynesia in song and dance. Enjoy a traditional Imu ceremony (an outdoor barbecue made out of leaves and stones) and a mesmerizing fire-knife show. Of course the rhythm of the island is ever present in an amazing drum performance. Fantastic Hawaiian food, drink, and hospitality under a star-filled sky is the closest thing to heaven on Earth.

East Maui Waterfalls and Rainforest Hike

Full Day / Diamond Head Vacations

Hike through the rainforest with some of Maui's most knowledgeable and personable guides, and if you're brave of heart, cliff jump into large pools under waterfalls. Pick wild fruit and nuts; see a wide variety of flowers and ornamentals as well as large trees and bamboo. Enjoy a delicious lunch at one of the waterfalls and have a memorable excursion on this two-mile trek through the natural environment, perfect for nearly every fitness level.

Haleakala Downhill Bike Ride

Full Day / Diamond Head Vacations

The world's longest downhill bicycle cruise starts on the slopes of Haleakala, the largest dormant volcano in the world. The landscape is fascinating from the lava encrusted crater to the lush seaside plantation town of Paia. Travel at a leisurely pace, pedaling past open fields and pastures, and the stunning Maui landscape spotted with colorful flowers and regal trees. Stop for photos as your bike guide shows you the cultural and historical background of the area.

Halekala Skyline Adventure Trip

Half-Day / Diamond Head Vacations

Soar over gulches and through the trees along the slopes of one of the world's largest volcanoes on this adventure that blends a short hiking experience with four picturesque zip-line crossings. Specially trained staff will outfit you with a customized seat harness and equipment before leading you on a walk through the woods in beautiful upcountry Maui. Then, sail across the zip-lines and get a bird's-eye view of the seasonal waterfalls and vegetation below.

Hana Gold Adventure

Full Day / Diamond Head Vacations

The winding road to Hana snakes along miles of open unspoiled coast filled with white-sand beaches. Sit back in air-conditioned comfort and behold the island landscape spotted with magnificent waterfalls, lush jungles, and fragrant rainforests. A knowledgeable guide will lead the group through lava fields created by Haleakala's last eruptions and point out native flora and fauna. Marvel at Keanae Village, Waikani Falls, South Wailua Falls, and Oheo Gulch, home of the Seven Sacred Pools.

Molokini Morning Snorkel

Half-Day / Diamond Head Vacations

Board the Pride of Maui and set sail across the waves to one of the greatest snorkeling spots in the world - Molokini Crater. Swim freely among the Pacific's rare and unique ocean creatures, and enjoy a light continental breakfast onboard as you watch the open Maui coastline towards Molokini. Spend 1.5 hours snorkeling and swimming with the underwater inhabitants before the ship moves on to nearby Turtle Town for more snorkeling and a hearty barbecue lunch.

Old Lahaina Luau

3 Hours / Diamond Head Vacations

Celebrate Hawaii's rich island culture in a rustic setting reminiscent of a Hawaiian fishing village. After a fresh flower lei greeting, enjoy craft demonstrations while sipping on your favorite cocktails. A bountiful feast is served beneath thatched structures filled with food, following a traditional Imu presentation (a pork roasted in a hand-dug barbecue pit). Watch outstanding entertainment throughout the evening, culminating in a spectacular authentic Hawaiian revue.

Teralani 2 Sunset Dinner Sail

Half-Day / Diamond Head Vacations

With lush green, rainbow crowned mountains to one side and the islands of Molokai and Lanai on the other side, the luxury catamaran Teralani 2 ship sets off to see some of Maui's most breathtaking and beautiful sights like the gorgeous Kahalawai Mountains. During whale season, it's not unusual to spot one swimming near the ship. Enjoy your favorite beverage while dining on a scrumptious dinner buffet capping off your day in spectacular fashion.

West Maui Molokai Helicopter

Half-Day / Diamond Head Vacations

Discover the visual wonders of Maui's west side and the "Friendly Isle" of Molokai. Soar over the scenic Kalaupapa peninsula, physically isolated from the rest of Molokai by fortress-like sea cliffs. Get a close-up look at the waterfalls plunging over 2000 feet into the ocean below. From Molokai, fly into Maui's interior to see the lush Iao Valley and the scenic vistas of Launiupoko, Olowalu, Ukumehame, and the waterfall known as the "Wall of Tears" in Waihee Valley.

Nicknamed the "Garden Island," Kauai is green and flourishing with lush flora from the mountains to the ocean. There are more than 50 miles of white-sand beaches – more beach per mile than any other island in Hawaii. Centuries of growth have formed tropical rainforests, forking rivers, and cascading waterfalls, as well as 3,567-foot deep Waimea Canyon (dubbed "The Grand Canyon of the Pacific") and the 3,000-foot towering mountain cliffs overlooking the Na Pali Coast.

The movie mavens of Hollywood know a perfect location when they see it, and that's why such memorable flicks as South Pacific, Jurassic Park, Avatar, Blue Hawaii, Hook, King Kong, Tropic Thunder, Raiders of the Lost Ark, Mighty Joe Young, The Man with the Golden Gun, and dozens more hits were filmed in Kauai.

BIG ISLAND EXPERIENCES:

Drive the Island

Rent a car and take advantage of the curvy roads and always-summer weather.

Kona Coffee

Don't leave Hawaii without buying a few pounds of 100% Kona coffee beans.

Rainforest Zoo

The Pana'ewa Rainforest Zoo & Gardens is the only natural tropical rainforest zoo in the US.

Lava Land

Head to Hawaii Volcanoes National Park for amazing views of Kilauea's lava flows, which have been running non-stop since 1983.

Mini Submarine

A mini-submarine takes you 100 feet below the surface to see a stunning coral reef off the Kona Coast.

Snorkeling

Get the most out of your underwater experience – snorkeling is simple to learn and the most fun you can have without an oxygen tank.

The Island of Hawaii, popularly known as “The Big Island” to distinguish itself from the state in which it resides, is inarguably the most diverse in the chain. Eight of the world's 13 climate zones exist here, encompassing flowing hot-lava deserts, lush jungles, snow-capped mountains that give way to magical valleys, and black-, white-, and green-sand beaches.

And the Big Island is getting bigger – literally. Twice the combined size of the other Hawaiian Islands, it encompasses five adjacent volcanoes, one of which (Kilauea) has been pouring lava into the ocean and actually creating new land since 1983. Watch the eruption in real time from inside Hawaii Volcanoes National Park, and marvel at the fact that, across the island, people are playing in the snow high atop Mauna Kea.

Waipio Valley view

THE BIG ISLAND: SIGHTSEEING

Atlantis Submarine

1 Hour / Diamond Head Vacations

Explore the colorful coral reefs off the Kona Coast from aboard an Atlantis submarine. Enjoy sweeping coastal vistas on your way to the dive site, where you'll embark on a 35-minute voyage to depths of 30-100 feet. Spot moray eels, manta rays, and reef fish in a rainbow of colors outside your viewport while your submarine co-pilot gives insightful and educational commentary along the way.

Big Island Spectacular Adventure

2 Hours / Diamond Head Vacations

This two-hour helicopter journey will take you high above Hawaii's scorched, volcanic landscape and rich, tropical valleys. See the powerful Kilauea Volcano and Pu'u O'o vent, fly over the waterfalls of the fertile Kohala Mountains and rich Hamakua shore, and pass above the sweeping Waipio and Waimanu Valleys.

Captain Zodiac Raft Expedition

4 Hours / Diamond Head Vacations

Sail the Kona coast aboard the 16-passenger Zodiac raft to Kealahou Bay marine life sanctuary. There, enjoy snorkeling among the bay's tropical fish and delicate coral gardens, keeping an eye out for dolphins, turtles, and manta rays, before enjoying a picnic snack and scenic return trip along the shoreline.

Circle of Fire Helicopter Tour

1 Hour / Diamond Head Vacations

View the world's most active volcano from the air, with this helicopter tour of Kilauea Volcano. Watch smoke billow from the Pu'u O'o and Kupainaha vents, see acres of land covered with blackened lava flows, and see the ruins of what used to be the suburban Royal Gardens housing division. Your return journey affords sweeping views of the Big Island's verdant rainforests and dazzling coastline.

Fair Wind Morning Snorkel BBQ Sail

Full Day / Diamond Head Vacations

Spend the day at sea aboard the Fair Wind II, with this snorkeling adventure. Afterwards, take a refreshing, fresh-water shower and enjoy a BBQ lunch on the shaded indoor cabin or open-air sundeck.

Grand Circle Island Excursion

11.5 Hours / Diamond Head Vacations

Tour the best of the Big Island's Kona side and Volcanoes National Park on this sweeping 260-mile tour. Relax in air-conditioned comfort on the way to Kilauea Volcano, which billows sulfurous steam, and cruise through Hilo Town, the floral center of the islands. Visit the Akatsuka Nursery and Big Island Candies, and if time permits, view the rainbows hovering over Rainbow Falls. Head past the sugar cane fields of the Hamakua coastline on the way to Parker Ranch.

Then, at a lower elevation, an interpretive naturalist will reveal the wonders and world-class clarity of the Hawaiian night skies.

Sea Quest Night Manta Experience

1.5 Hours / Diamond Head Vacations

Hop into a rigid hull inflatable raft with a USCG licensed captain and crew and head out for a nighttime adventure to feed manta rays in Keauhou Bay. These graceful and glorious giants soar beneath you as you leisurely and safely view them from above, just feet from the boat. Manta rays do not have stingers and are completely safe to be around, so enjoy this once-in-a-lifetime experience.

MOLOKAI EXPERIENCES:

Action Ranch

Go horseback riding, biking, or kayaking at the 53,000-acre Great Molokai Ranch, Hawaii's second largest ranch.

Sport Fishing

Gear up for sport fishing, with marlin, mahi-mahi, ahi (tuna), and ono the prime targets in Molokai's waters.

Molokai Churches

Kaunakakai's Church Row is a stretch of road featuring seven small houses of worship dating back to the 19th century.

Wild Waterfalls

Get even closer to Molokai's untouched and wild side with a hike along the Halawa Valley trail to Moa'ula Falls.

Coconuts by Mail

Say aloha to friends back home with a free dried coconut sent via US mail from the Hoolehua P.O. in Kaunakakai.

Macadamia Farm

In Hoolehua, visit Purdy's Natural Macadamia Nut Farm to sample nuts raw or roasted, and learn about local culture.

On Molokai, "aloha" is a way of life on an island where the longest white-sand beaches in Hawaii will have only your footprints – and where the most relaxing vacation of a lifetime awaits. When you get to Molokai, you're really getting away from it all.

The island is dominated by a pair of huge ranches – the 14,000-acre Puu O Hoku, a rural gem with grazing pastures, horses, and cattle, and the century-old Molokai Ranch. You'll also find rainforests, deserted beaches, and small friendly villages. But you won't find traffic lights, fast-food joints, shopping malls, elevators, or neon signs. The good people of Molokai never were much for the noisier trappings of "civilization," preferring a simpler way of life to be lived amid unspoiled beauty and awesome natural wonders.
